DIAMOND BAR WOMAN'S CLUB President's Message

By Marriyan Hill

Let Love Lead You

Dear Members and Friends of the Diamond Bar Woman's Club,
Welcome back! As we begin a new club year, I am filled with gratitude, enthusiasm, and a renewed sense of purpose for all that lies ahead for the Diamond Bar Woman's Club. September represents a new beginning for us—a time to reconnect, refocus, and recommit ourselves to the values that have sustained this organization for more than 60 years. Our Club has a proud history of service to the community, and each generation of members has contributed something meaningful to the legacy we enjoy today. As we move forward together, it is our responsibility not only to honor that legacy, but to continue building upon it.

As your President, my motto is “Let Love Lead You.” Those words represent the spirit in which I hope we will approach everything we do this year. Let love lead us in how we serve our community. Let love guide how we support one another. Let it influence how we communicate, how we resolve our differences, how we welcome new members, and how we represent the Diamond Bar Woman's Club.

Our strength has never been measured simply by the number of projects we complete or events we hold. Our greatest strength is found in our members—the women who give their time, talents, ideas, compassion, and energy in service to others. Every member has something valuable to contribute, and every act of service, whether large or small, helps move our mission forward. That mission continues to be reflected in the work for which our Club has become known: providing scholarships to local students, supporting individuals and families affected by domestic violence, honoring and assisting active-duty military personnel and veterans, participating in community activities, and supporting programs that improve the lives of others.

September also provides us with an important opportunity to put those values into action. On September 26, 2026, the Diamond Bar Woman's Club will participate in the GFWC International Day of Service, with a focus on Domestic Violence Awareness & Prevention.

This initiative gives us an opportunity not only to support survivors, but also to educate, raise awareness, encourage prevention, and remind our community that meaningful change begins when people are willing to become involved. Our club is hosting a donation drive, for new or gently used purses and toiletries to be stuffed into the purses, to support people affected by domestic violence. The donations will be accepted on September 24, 2026, at the monthly open mic: 21865 Copley Drive, Diamond Bar, CA 91765.

As we begin this new year together, I encourage each of you to consider a simple question:

What can I contribute? Perhaps it is volunteering for a project, joining a committee, sharing a new idea, mentoring another member, attending an event, inviting someone to learn about our Club, or simply offering encouragement when it is needed. There is a place for every member to participate, and our collective impact grows when each of us brings something to the table. I also want us to remember that fellowship is an important part of who we are. We work hard, but we should also make time to laugh, celebrate, create friendships, recognize accomplishments, and enjoy one another. A strong organization is built not only through service, but through relationships.

Our Club has much to be proud of. The Diamond Bar Woman's Club has been recognized for leadership, communications and public relations, fundraising, membership, health and wellness, and arts and culture. Those accomplishments are a reflection of members who were willing to work together toward a common purpose.

Now we have the opportunity to write the next chapter.

My hope for 2026–2027 is that we will continue to grow—not simply in membership, but in service, visibility, participation, collaboration, friendship, and impact. I want our community to know who the Diamond Bar Woman's Club is, what we stand for, and what happens when dedicated women come together with a genuine desire to serve.

I am grateful for the opportunity to serve as your President, and I am equally grateful for each of you who chooses to stand beside me in this work. Leadership is never the work of one person. The success of this Club belongs to all of us.

So, as we return from our summer break and begin another year of service, let us move forward with renewed energy, open hearts, and a shared commitment to making a difference.

Let us support one another.

Let us serve with purpose.

Let us strengthen our community.

And above all, let love lead us.

Here's to a wonderful and meaningful year ahead.

With appreciation and in service,

Marriyan Hill

Welcome Back, Diamond Bar Woman's Club!

I hope everyone had a wonderful summer filled with moments to rest, recharge, and enjoy the people and experiences that bring you joy.

As we return to our regularly scheduled meetings this September, I am truly excited to be back together and to begin this new season of service with each of you. I'm especially looking forward to stepping fully into my role as Recording Secretary and serving alongside so many incredible women who are also beginning new roles and bringing their own gifts, ideas, and energy to our club.

There is something powerful about a group of women coming together with a shared commitment to serve, connect, and make a difference. Each of us brings something unique to the table, and when we combine those strengths, our collective impact can reach far beyond what any one of us could accomplish alone.

I'm looking forward to the conversations we'll have, the relationships we'll continue to build, the work we'll accomplish, and most importantly, the impact we will create together in our community.

Here's to a wonderful new club year. I'm happy to be back, honored to serve, and excited for all that is ahead!

A Message from Your New Corresponding Secretary

As summer comes to a close, I am excited to serve as the Diamond Bar Women's Club's Corresponding Secretary for the upcoming term.

Even though we did not hold formal meetings over the summer, our members remained active! In June, I had the privilege of serving as a judge at Diamond Bar's Juneteenth Community Festival and participating in the crowning of Miss Juneteenth. In July, our club hosted a booth at Concerts in the Park, where we gave away children's books and connected with local families. By August, I dusted off my boots and donned my western attire for our Western BBQ Line Dance Fundraiser—it was wonderful to dance, mingle, and meet new friends. I also attended the San Gabriel Valley District Summer Training Workshop, which provided insightful guidance on board best practices, procedures, membership and the duties of each office.

As we gear up for the 2026–2027 year, I am honored to step into my role on the Executive Board. My goal is to keep our members informed, connected, and engaged while supporting the work our club does throughout the community. I look forward to our upcoming events and to making a meaningful difference alongside all of you through service, friendship, and generosity.

Warmly,

Lydia Narcisse

ARTS & CULTURECelebrating Creativity,
Culture & CommunityBy Marriyan Hill*

September welcomes us back from summer with a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the many ways art and culture connect us to one another. Through music, poetry, literature, visual art, history, heritage, and creative expression, we are able to tell our stories, preserve traditions, explore different perspectives, and discover the things we have in common. The Diamond Bar Woman's Club is proud to bring Arts & Culture programming to our community. As we begin a new club year, I encourage our members to think about the arts not simply as entertainment, but as an important part of a healthy and vibrant community. Art gives people a voice. Culture gives us an opportunity to understand one another. Together, they help create connections that cross generations and backgrounds.

September – Days of Note

September offers many opportunities to celebrate arts, culture, history, and education.

September 7 – Labor Day honors the contributions and achievements of American workers. Throughout our history, artists, writers, photographers, musicians, and filmmakers have documented the American labor experience and helped preserve those stories for future generations.

September 8 – International Literacy Day reminds us of the importance of literacy and education. For those of us who love poetry, books, journaling, and creative writing, it is also a reminder of the extraordinary power of the written word.

September 9 – California Admission Day commemorates California becoming the 31st state in 1850. Our state's rich cultural history has influenced American art, architecture, literature, music, film, and countless other forms of creative expression.

September 11 – Patriot Day is a day of remembrance for those whose lives were lost on September 11, 2001, and an opportunity to honor the courage and sacrifice of first responders and others who served. Art, photography, music, memorials, and poetry have played an important role in preserving the stories and emotions of that day for future generations.

September 13-19 – National Arts in Education Week is particularly meaningful to Arts & Culture. It recognizes the importance of arts education and the role that music, dance, theater, literature, and visual arts play in learning and development.

September 15 – October 15 – National Hispanic Heritage Month celebrates the histories, cultures, achievements, and contributions of Hispanic and Latino Americans. This is a wonderful time to explore Hispanic and Latino artists, authors, poets, musicians, dancers, filmmakers, and cultural traditions.

September 17 – Constitution Day and Citizenship Day commemorates the signing of the U.S. Constitution and recognizes those who have become American citizens. The ideas of freedom and expression associated with our nation's history have had a profound influence on American literature, journalism, theater, music, and the arts.

And on September 22, autumn officially begins. For centuries, the changing seasons have inspired poets, painters, musicians, photographers, and writers. Perhaps September is the perfect month to allow the beauty of a new season to inspire something creative of your own.

ARTS & CULTURE

The Diamond Bar Renaissance Open Mic

By Marriyan Hill

One of the Diamond Bar Woman's Club's ongoing Arts & Culture projects is the Diamond Bar Renaissance Open Mic, and we invite you to join us this month on:

Thursday, September 24, 2026

Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Performances begin at 7:00 p.m.

The event is held at South Coast Air Quality Management District, 21865 Copley Drive, Room CC6, Diamond Bar, CA 91765. The Club website describes the Diamond Bar Renaissance as a free monthly event, typically held on a selected Thursday, and open to artists of all ages. This month we are hosting a donation drive at this event for the GFWC International Day of Service that highlights Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention. We are collecting new or gently used purses, toiletries to be stuffed into the purses and or money to buy the items.

What makes the Diamond Bar Renaissance special is that you do not have to fit into one particular definition of an artist to participate. Our stage has welcomed singers, musicians, poets and other creatives, while visual artists such as photographers and jewelers have also been represented. Sing your favorite song. Play your favorite instrument. Recite an original poem or one you love. Share your artwork. Or simply come, sit back, enjoy the evening, and support the talented people in our community.

The word “Renaissance” was intentionally chosen because creativity should not be confined to one art form. The Renaissance is about expression, discovery, creativity and community. Whether you have performed for years, are sharing your work publicly for the first time, or simply appreciate the arts, there is a place for you.

I especially encourage our Diamond Bar Woman’s Club members to attend. Your presence matters. Every artist deserves an audience, and sometimes one of the most meaningful ways we can support Arts & Culture is simply by showing up, listening, applauding, and encouraging someone to continue creating.

Invite a friend. Bring a neighbor. Encourage a young artist. Come meet someone new. And if there is an artist in your life who has been waiting for an opportunity to share their talent, tell them about the Diamond Bar Renaissance.

As we begin another Club year, I look forward to continuing to expand Arts & Culture and finding new ways to celebrate the creativity and cultural richness within our community.

Art gives us a voice.

Culture tells our stories.

And when we share both, we create community.

I hope to see you at the Diamond Bar Renaissance Open Mic on September 24!

With creativity and appreciation,

WOMEN HISTORY

WANDA TANAKA: A LEGACY OF SERVICE, LEADERSHIP & LOVE FOR COMMUNITY

By Marriyan Hill

Women's history is often associated with famous women whose accomplishments changed our nation or our world. But women's history is also being written every day, in our own communities, by women who dedicate their lives to serving others. They are the women who volunteer when help is needed, mentor young people, strengthen organizations, support their neighbors, champion important causes, and quietly give countless hours of their lives without expecting anything in return. Wanda Tanaka was one of those women.

This month, the Diamond Bar Woman's Club recognizes and remembers Wanda, a longtime Diamond Bar resident and respected community leader whose recent passing is deeply felt by the many people and organizations touched by her life of service. Wanda and her husband made Diamond Bar their home in 1976, and over the decades that followed, she became part of the fabric of this community. Her volunteerism reached across numerous organizations and causes, including the Diamond Bar Friends of the Library, Diamond Bar Senior Club, Miss Diamond Bar Scholarship Pageant, Diamond Bar Relay for Life, Inland Valley Humane Society and S.P.C.A., Lions Clubs International and the Diamond Bar Woman's Club.

Yet when we remember a woman like Wanda, a list of organizations and accomplishments tells only part of her story. Her true legacy can be found in the people she influenced and the spirit of service she helped instill in others.

One of the most meaningful chapters of Wanda's community service was her commitment to young people. Wanda and her husband were instrumental in establishing Leo Clubs at Diamond Bar High School and Chaparral Middle School, where they served as advisors and helped introduce generations of young people to leadership, volunteerism, and community service. That contribution deserves special recognition because when we teach a young person to serve, the impact extends far beyond a single volunteer project. We plant seeds of compassion, responsibility, leadership, and civic engagement that can influence a lifetime.

Wanda understood that. She did not simply volunteer herself; she helped create volunteers. She did not simply lead; she helped develop future leaders. That may be among the greatest gifts any community leader can leave behind.

Wanda's commitment to service also extended deeply into the Lions organization. She became a member of the Diamond Bar Breakfast Lions Club in 2001, served twice as Club President, assumed additional leadership responsibilities, and received numerous recognitions for her contributions. Her service was also recognized by the community she loved. Wanda and her husband were named Community Heroes by the City of Diamond Bar, and in 2012 they were recognized with a Lions International Lion of the Year award for their humanitarian service.

Those honors are significant, but perhaps the greatest recognition of Wanda's life cannot be placed on a plaque or certificate. It can be found in the people who remember her, in the young people she encouraged, in the organizations that are stronger because she served, and in the community projects that continue because someone like Wanda was willing to step forward and show others what was possible.

There is a special reason Wanda's story belongs in our Women's History column. The Diamond Bar Woman's Club has its own long history of women coming together in service. Since 1963, women in our Club have volunteered, raised funds, provided scholarships, supported community causes, promoted education and culture, and worked to improve the lives of others. Wanda's journey reminds us that we are all contributing to the history of Diamond Bar while we are living it.

Every woman who chooses to serve becomes part of that story. Some will hold titles and receive awards. Others will work quietly behind the scenes. But collectively, women who give their time, talents, compassion, and leadership create institutions, traditions, opportunities, and relationships that can endure long after their individual service has ended. Wanda leaves that kind of legacy.

This September, the Diamond Bar Woman's Club will have an especially meaningful opportunity to turn remembrance into action. As our Club participates in the GFWC International Day of Service on September 26, 2026, for Domestic Violence Awareness & Prevention, we will collaborate with the Healed Women Heal organization with a special service project to make a donation in honor of the late Wanda Tanaka.

We will collect new or gently used purses and women's toiletry items that will be "stuffed" into the donated purses. Monetary contributions of $25, $50, or $100 will also be accepted to help purchase purses and toiletry items. The completed donations will benefit women selected by the Healed Women Heal organization. There is something especially fitting about honoring Wanda in this way. The Diamond Bar Woman's Club will join with an organization that is dedicated to serve others who need compassion, dignity, and support. Her legacy will continue through service. That is more than a memorial; it is a continuation of the work and values that were important to her.

Women's History gives us an opportunity to recognize women whose lives have made a difference, but we should not have to look only to distant history to find them. Sometimes they lived in our neighborhoods. Sometimes we sat beside them at community meetings. Sometimes they volunteered at the same events we attended. Sometimes they encouraged our children. And sometimes we do not fully appreciate the history someone has created until we are called upon to carry a portion of that legacy forward.

Wanda Tanaka was part of the history of Diamond Bar. She was a volunteer, a mentor, a leader, and a community servant. Perhaps most importantly, she understood that a stronger community is created when people are willing to give something of themselves for the benefit of others.

As we remember Wanda, may we do more than celebrate the life she lived. May we continue the example she gave us. May we mentor another generation, support one another, answer when our community calls, and remember that one of the most enduring ways to honor a life devoted to service is through service of our own.

The Diamond Bar Woman's Club extends its heartfelt condolences to Wanda's family, friends, fellow Lions and Leos, and the many members of our community whose lives she touched. We thank Wanda for the years she gave to Diamond Bar, for believing in our young people, for demonstrating the power of community service, and for leaving behind a legacy worthy of continuing.

In Loving Memory of Wanda Tanaka

Her Service Made a Difference. Her Leadership Inspired Others. Her Legacy Lives On.
